

Exam Instructions

1. Any attempt to communicate with another student by any means is a serious offence and will result in all parties involved receiving zero marks and being referred to the disciplinary Committee.
2. You must use your assigned computer unless it is not working properly in which case, a supervisor will assign you to a new computer.
3. You must bring in your Student ID card and place it on your assigned computer.
4. The exam will last for 2 hours. You must arrive in the first half hour. You may not leave in the last half hour.
5. The exam is open book and you have access to any material covered in lectures or labs.
6. You may not run any program other than COMMAND prompt, TASM, TLINK and an editor (e.g. notepad/editplus)

Download Exam from Here

<http://www.computing.dcu.ie/~ray/teaching/CA296/labexam/EXAM.EXE>